

Mark's story	A visit to the Railway Museum
	On a visit to the Great Central Railway at Ruddington.
	It was Christmas and very cold, they ate mince pies
	The steam train left from Ruddington
	There was a landslide in the middle of nowhere. There was a loud noise and the driver had to put the brakes on suddenly.
	Everyone had to get off the train, there were a lot of people.
	Just as they thought they were safe a gun man started shooting, he shouted "Stand and Deliver". He grabbed a woman and tied her to a tree.
	Someone called the Police, and they were arrested. It turned out he was someone who was pretending to be a train robber because he wanted to be the centre of attention.
