NOTTINGHAM PLAYHOUSE
UK'S MOST WELCOMING THEATRE

Call Out for Associate Artist

Nottingham Playhouse is one of the UK's most prestigious producing theatres.

We have a reputation for creating ambitious and challenging work, of high artistic quality, which explores and responds to the world we live in. We attract world renowned talent and exciting new voices to our city, whilst developing and exporting homegrown talent. Our work is celebrated both locally and nationally.

We are seeking an Associate Artist to support the artistic vision of Nottingham Playhouse and to use the opportunity to develop their own skills and career.

The ideal person will be a theatre-maker with a strong knowledge of the contemporary theatre industry who currently resides in the East Midlands or Midlands. It is crucial that they enjoy promoting and developing the work of other artists. To make the most of the opportunity, they must be proactive and self-motivated, with a curiosity to grow as an artist.

The role is offered on a 1 year freelance contract, commencing from date of acceptance, with a fee of £2,000.

We would like to help you to fully participate in the application process. If you would like the information in an alternative format, support in completing your application, or you would like an alternative way to apply, please contact us at recruitment@nottinghamplayhouse.co.uk to discuss a suitable format, or ring our Stage Door on 0115 947 4361. Please leave a message with your full name, contact information, your address (if you need paperwork posting to you) and details of your request.

"Being an Associate Artist at Nottingham Playhouse has been hugely helpful to my career and my creative development. For example, this opportunity coupled with DYCP funding allowed me to assist on my first mainstage show and manage understudy rehearsals which has been key in building my skills on larger scale work."

Through reading scripts, being on the Ideas Panel and reading for the Phoebe Frances Brown Award, I have developed my script analysis skills and confidence in identifying what excites me artistically and what might work for audiences."

I have found conversations with Adam Penford particularly illuminating in learning about the inner workings at Nottingham Playhouse which I will take forward into future work. Being an Associate gave me credibility as a director when meeting with other employers and collaborators."

About Nottingham Playhouse

We create theatre that's bold, thrilling and proudly made in Nottingham.

Awarded the UK's Most Welcoming Theatre by UK Theatre in 2023, and Regional Theatre of the Year 2019 by The Stage, Nottingham Playhouse is one of the country's leading producing theatres. We create a range of productions throughout the year, from timeless classics to innovative family shows and adventurous new commissions.

Under the leadership of Chief Executive, Stephanie Sirr MBE, Artistic Director, Adam Penford, and Chief Operating Officer, Lee Henderson, we mount varied and ambitious productions, attracting a host of high-profile performers and creatives and garnering frequent media attention and commercial interest.

We want our theatre to be a space where everyone feels they belong, and we use our stage to tell diverse stories that reflect our city. Our wide-reaching participation programmes create life-changing experiences for our community and we also support the next generation of theatre-makers in the East Midlands through our extensive Amplify programme.

Nottingham Playhouse is a registered charity (no. 1109342). All of the funds we raise help to ensure we're reaching as many people as possible to give them new opportunities and create lasting memories.

Our building has grade II* listed building status and is home to Anish Kapoor's Sky Mirror.

What Our Community Thinks

"Honestly, the final few minutes of the first act were some of the most captivating, powerful and heart wrenching I've seen on stage. Incredible!"

– Audience member on The Madness of George III

"Nottingham Playhouse has a very special place in my heart. At the age of 16, my school placed me at the theatre for my work experience... Without [them], I wouldn't have the career I do now."

– Indhu Rubasingham, Artistic Director of Kiln Theatre

"The actual performance was an incredible experience. Firstly, just to be on the Nottingham Playhouse stage was a dream for all of us. But to be a part of such a powerful, visceral production was an absolute privilege."

– Lisa Chamberlain, on her experience as a member of our community ensemble during Gary Clarke Company's production of COAL.

Our Vision, Mission and Values

The essence of who we are is to create wonder in Nottingham. We believe that, through theatre, being transported to different worlds broadens our horizons, that by being positive, relevant and devoted we provide an experience, not just a stage. At Nottingham Playhouse, we give a voice to untold stories and cultivate life-changing experiences. Our theatre is a place where everyone belongs, a place of entertainment, heart and joy.

Our vision is to create high quality art that is truly accessible and representative of both our heritage and our rich diversity. We aim to be a nationally recognised destination theatre, a producer of "must see" work and a venue that welcomes everybody to be entertained, surprised, delighted and challenged by work that is bold, brilliant and relevant. Working in partnership with exciting artists and companies regionally, nationally and internationally, we create theatre that puts Nottingham Playhouse on the map.

We exist for the benefit of the people of our region – be they audiences, participants or artists. As a publicly-funded organisation we commit to ensure that our demographic of opportunity reflects the demographic of our catchment – including gender, ethnicity, sexuality, socio-economic standing and disability – to be not just world-class but also truly inclusive in all areas of operation, including to recruit and pay fairly. To strengthen our actions we established a Diversity in the Workforce Working Group to ensure that we are doing all we can to recruit a more representative workforce.

This group has now merged with our Anti-Racism Action Group, launched in January 2021 to examine the wider culture and environment at Nottingham Playhouse. The group advises the Executive and Nottingham Playhouse Board of Trustees on matters of diversity, inclusion and equality, with the aim of ensuring that we are a safe and fully representative organisation, which reflects the full breadth and richness of diversity within our community. Through this group we have created an online system for Reporting Racist Incidents.

A core value of Nottingham Playhouse is to proactively create and support opportunities for cultural participation for all ages, for all backgrounds. We also work in supportive partnership with a very wide range of stake holders to cement our position as an organisation with a strong artistic vision that includes the development of artists.

Nottingham Playhouse is a founder member of Ramps on the Moon, a member of PiPA (Parents and Carers in Performing Arts) and a Family Friendly theatre. We are committed to the UK Theatre/SOLT Ten Principles to encourage safer and even more supportive working practices in theatre and have signed up to the Old Vic Guardians initiative. Participation and the Community

At Nottingham Playhouse, our diverse, local community are at the heart of everything we do.

We run over 60 different programmes for people of all ages, experience and interests at Nottingham Playhouse, including:

- Weekly Young Companies.
- Homegrown – a pre-professional training scheme for writers, directors, producers and performers aged 16-25 to develop their skills and industry practice.
- Conversation & Creative Cafe – a safe space for Refugees and people seeking asylum to meet, socialise and be creative.
- Playhouse Platform and Open Stage Young Company for autistic learning-disabled adults and children.
- Our Life-Long Learning and Encore programmes provide a range of regular skills classes and meet-ups for adults.
- Our Shine programme is a long-running outreach programme, that now comprises 14 regular, free to access, drama groups for young people across the city and county. This includes specialist provision with Queens Medical Centre Hospital School and Nottingham Education Sanctuary Team (NEST).
- Family Festivals during half terms, as well as a large variety of shows and projects throughout the year in our venue and in libraries around the city and county.
- In 2023/24 we had over 40,000 engagements with a huge variety of participants.
- All of our participation programmes have bursary places available to ensure finances are not a barrier to engagement
